(Through the President)

Sir,

Subject - Continuance of the Petition and Enquiry Branch

Ref Lr 10/5

Adverting to G O No 4116-7/Cr 3-50-18 dated 14-7-50 according sanction to the continuance of the Petition and Enquiry Branch of the Municipality consisting of the staff detailed in the margin during the year 1950-51, I write to state that the Council before whom the continuance of the above staff came up for their consideration during the budget meeting held on 26-3-51, were of opinion that the working of the Petition and Enquiry Section has greatly facilitated the expeditious disposal of the requests of the citizens by enabling the Officers to keep a closer touch with the progress of action taken on each petition presented to the office They have therefore resolved that the above branch may be continued during the year 1951-52 A statement showing the number of petitions received and dealt with in the Section during the year 1950-51 is enclosed herewith

One Senior clerk on Rs 60/-	15 D A
One Junior clerk on Rs 40/-	15 D A
One attender on Rs 25/-	12 D A

In enclosing a copy of the resolution, I request that orders of Government may be kindly obtained for the continuance of the above staff during the year 1951-52 Due provision has been made for meeting the expenditure during the year 1951-52

Yours faithfully,

Municipal Commissioner
